THE GEORGIAN

1967

Published by the Senior Class
GEORGETOWN HIGH SCHOOL
Georgetown, Massachusetts

DEDICATION

We live in a troubled world. While hoping for peace, we are constantly faced with the necessity of defending freedom with force. Many of the boys in our class will serve in the Armed Forces, and will unfortunately face the possibility of dying in defense of our country. We can not possibly pay our debt to them.

In appreciation of their sacrifice, we the senior class, wish to dedicate the 1967 GEORGIAN to the young men of our generation who are serving and will serve in the Armed Forces of the United States of America.

THE LANCER'S SHIELD

For the first time in many years, the student body published a school newspaper. In spite of many difficulties, the staff printed several interesting editions containing school news, sports, editorials, short stories, poems, and fashion. The paper was well received by the students and the staff hopes to have set a precedent for future years.

This year the Aerospace Club undertook project S.L.E.M. (Simulated Lunar Excursion Module) at 150 West Main Street, now known as Cape Sheldon. The boys built a simulated space capsule, and during February and April vacations three-day and six-day missions were completed. The flights were covered by the press and television. Mr. & Mrs. Alan Shepard, Sr., parents of astronaut Alan Shepard were on hand to wish the boys well.

Aerospace Club President, Ray Burleigh comments on the project. "The S.L.E.M. project was undertaken with a number of goals in mind. A better understanding of spacecraft design, construction, and use was the primary goal although research procedures were also stressed. The dates and lengths of the missions were largely determined by our desire to break the existing national duration records. The first two missions totaled 653 man hours, giving us a substantial lead in the space race."

ord Georgetown has had for the past years." Most of the classes were well represented with the main support coming from Seniors, R. Teeling, P. Holden, R. Burleigh and R. Burleigh.

FIELD HOCKEY

It all started in the fall of 1965 when our former girl's physical education instructor, Mrs. Nancy McQueeney, ordered some field hockey equipment for our sports department.

Then came the fall of 1966 and with it a new instructor. Miss Pamela Simpson organized a varsity team and arranged a few scrimmages followed by some league games. The team did unexpectedly well and true sportsmanship carried them through their losses.

FOOTBALL

This year was not as promising a year as we would have hoped for - scorewise. However, as Assistant Coach Gilligan said, "You have to take into consideration the size of Georgetown, and the size of the schools we play." Coach Collamore optimistically stated, "The team will improve with experience."

"Come on, I dare you."

This year the Georgetown Royals had a disappointing season due to their record of three wins and eighteen losses. The players had to contend with very powerful adversaries. Despite an unsuccessful season, we can be proud of them. The team preserved their morale throughout the season. This factor enabled them to acquire the Cape Ann League Good Sportsmanship Award for 1966-1967.

WHAT Basketball?

Our basketball season was a successful one. Coach Simpson, although new this year, did a wonderful job coaching. The great display of sportsmanship and teamwork were overriding factors soaring us to six victories. TRACK

This year our track team recorded its best season. Although handicapped by a lack of track facilities such as hurdles, pole vault, and javelins, the Royals did not finish in last place for the first time in their history.

Records noted that Mark Sullivan pole vaulted 8'6" in his first attempt at Masconomet and Captain, Ken O'Blenes was the highest scorer with a total of thirty points.

INTRAMURALS

A large number of students participated in intramural sports this year. Co-ed volleyball, boys' volleyball, basketball, gymnastics, and wrestling programs were directed by Mr. Colamore and Miss Simpson. This was the most extensive intramural program yet offered at GHS.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Physical Education classes serve as a basis for intramural and interscholastic sports. The girls' program includes field hockey, volleyball, basketball, gymnastics, and softball. For boys, the department provides football, basketball, wrestling, volleyball, gymnastics, track, cross country, and baseball.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT DAY

Irene Handren represented GHS at the annual Student Government Day in Boston on April 7. In a mock session of the General Court, four hundred students from the entire state voted on such bills as lowering the voting age to eighteen, setting up a water pollution control board, and extending the powers of M.D.C.

Participating in committee and legislative sessions gave the students a greater understanding of Massachusetts Government.

STUDENT EXCHANGE DAY

R. Clark, V. Manos, J. Murgida, I. Handren, J. Holt, and D. McBrierty (SEATED) represented GHS in the Student Exchange Program with Newburyport High School. (not pictured, R. James)

FATHER'S BEEN TO MARS

The production of FATHER'S BEEN TO MARS was a great success. The able director and producer, Camille T. Lacey, made actors and actresses out of Seniors. Weeks of rehearsal resulted in a most delightful play. With plenty of behind the scene work by the entire class, the play was a theatrical as well as a financial success.

FATHER'S BEEN TO MARS had appeal for young and old alike. It kept the audience laughing at each performance. In the words of a performer, "The play was as enjoyable for the cast as it was for the audience."

Here spread the roots of America's strength

By the Faith of its communicants a church is known, and by the learning of its graduates, a school. By the probity of its members a family takes stature. And by the worth of its single communities, a nation is great . . . or ignoble.

Whatever is great in America is rooted in neighborhood institutions: the local church, the local school, the local enterprise. How strong the community's faith, how sound its learning, how serviceable its business? There are your real criteria. For as grows the community, so prospers the Nation. Such is the creed to which your IGA grocer subscribes. Independent owner of his store, specializing in local service, he is vitally concerned with local institutions. He is your neighbor; his children go to school with your children; his income is spent in your town. You'll find he thinks about things much the same way as you do. Drop in where you see the friendly IGA sign.

Good Luck,
Grads!
